The African Conference on Research in Chemistry Education (ACRICE) is a flagship conference of the Federation of African Societies of Chemistry. It also became one of the IUPAC conferences. ACRICE was launched in Addis Ababa/Ethiopia in December 2013. The 2nd ACRICE was in Venda/South Africa, in 2015; the 3rd in Setif/Algeria in 2017; and the 4th in Jos/Nigeria in 2019.

The 5th African Conference on Research in Chemical Education [ACRICE-5], hosted by Ain Shams University, Cairo, Egypt, was conducted on 7-9 December 2022 with a theme: Teaching Chemistry for a sustainable future. ACRICE-5 was endorsed by the Egyptian Academy of Scientific Research and Technology, International Union of Pure and Applied Chemistry (IUPAC), the Federation of African Societies of Chemistry [FASC], 10 Academy, Falconess.

The June 2023 issue of AJCE has published a Special Issue entitled Lecture Series from ACRICE-5. Selected papers presented at the Conference were peer-reviewed and published as in this issue. We hope you will enjoy reading them.
