

Editorial message

Dear Esteemed Readers, Contributors, and Colleagues,

As we usher in our usual activity of intellectual exploration and scholarly discourse, I am thrilled to extend my warmest greetings to you in this edition of the Rwanda Journal of Education (RJE). It is with great pleasure and pride that the University of Rwanda College of Education (UR-CE) presents the latest collection of groundbreaking research, insightful analyses, and innovative perspectives from the local and global academic community.

In pursuing knowledge and advancing UR-CE's respective fields, RJE continues to serve as a beacon for excellence, fostering a collaborative environment that transcends geographical boundaries. UR-CE's commitment to promoting rigorous research, intellectual diversity, and academic integrity remains steadfast. UR-CE is proud to showcase the exceptional contributions of scholars and researchers worldwide.

The diverse articles in this issue reflect UR-CE's dedication to providing a platform for voices that inspire, challenge, and contribute to the ever-evolving landscape of academia. UR-CE extends its sincere gratitude to the authors, reviewers, and editorial board members who have played an instrumental role in ensuring the quality and relevance of the content presented.

As UR-CE navigates the complexities of our rapidly changing world, RJE remains dedicated to upholding the highest standards of scholarly excellence. UR-CE invites its readers to engage deeply with the articles and ideas presented in this issue, fostering a spirit of intellectual curiosity and dialogue that transcends disciplinary boundaries.

We also encourage scholars and researchers to consider RJE as a conduit for their future contributions, providing a platform for disseminating impactful research that shapes the trajectory of our respective fields.

Thank you for your continued support and collaboration. Let us embark on a journey of discovery, innovation, and academic excellence together.

Best regards,

Assoc. Prof. Ndabaga Eugene
