

Editorial

Scientia Africana (An International Journal of Pure and Applied Sciences) is a publication of the Faculty of Science, University of Port Harcourt. The first edition was published in the year 1999 and since then it has transformed from the manual edition to the online edition with many other innovations and improvement to make the quality and content of International Standard.

The mandate of the journal is to provide a reputable forum for all scientists and professionals of related disciplines to disseminate and exchange their research findings while opening up a greater global audience of both authors and readers.

The articles in this edition cover a wide-range of research-findings that cut across the fields of pure and applied sciences and technology. The issues are of current interest and they open wide opportunities for further research in related area of study and application.

To improve the quality of the Journal in accessibility and acceptance, we have added the DOI number to this edition.

I hereby thank our esteem manuscript reviewers for their quick response, constructive suggestions and contributions that have greatly improved the quality of this journal.

Also, we are grateful to the contributors and readers for your faith in this journal and your regular comments respectively.

Happy reading and thank you.
